

ELA 102.0291 (49096) ELEMENTARY ARABIC II
PROFESSOR LAMEES FADL

*The Representation of Women's Issues in Media :
An approach to study Gender and Feminism in the Egyptian and American Media*

HOW WILL YOU EXPLORE THIS TOPIC?

Project will be conducted in English

This collaborative project invites students from LaGuardia Community College, USA, and MSA University, Egypt, to join together as they investigate themes of Feminism in media, such as Woman activism, the image of Arab women in the American media, and sexuality in domestic and international media. Explore the women movements in the Arab world, Egypt, the U.S., and the social construction of inequality in the west and east.

Satisfies World Cultures and Global Issues requirement of Pathways Flexible Core

Community College

CLASS SCHEDULE :

Lecture -

*Thursday 10:30-12:45pm
(online synchronous)
+ 1 Hour asynchronous*

Lab -

*Tuesday 10:30-11:30am
(online synchronous)*

COURSE DESCRIPTION :

This course continues to expose students to the four language basic skills, fundamental grammar, as well as cultural facts of the Arabic world. Students are given opportunities to explore the cultural side of the Arab world through different activities, presentations, and contacts with native Arabic speakers and Arabic organizations.